The Old Way:

- Board Directors have limited time to deliver on their legal mandate to safeguard the interests of stakeholders
- Board Directors have insufficient tools to provide effective and timely oversight to management
- It is unclear where the responsibilities of the Directors stop and where those of management begin
- Increased risks of things going wrong

A Better Way:

- Hire FJP as Board of Directors Consultants to provide support at one or more points of Service:
- Review of Board Strategy, Structure & Work Planning
- Review of Board Skills Development Needs
- Training on specific Board processes
- Annual confidential performance review of the Board leading to an enhancement plan
- Development of Board Charter to govern the internal operation of the Board & its interface with management
- Support to the implementation of enhanced Board processes
- Standby expert governance advice to the Board

Why FJP?

- FJP has a senior leadership with proven specialist skills, national and international experience and reputation relevant to your strengthening of governance and Board or Directors function
- FJP does not have conflicts of interest as its primary focus is on governance, internal audit, management and development consulting
