

Our Team Leader - - Dr Omodele Jones

Our services are led by Dr Omodele Jones, a strategy, risk, programme evaluation and business administration expert with over 30 years of experience internationally and in East & West Africa. Dele is a Doctor of Business Administration (Heriot-Watt University, Scotland) and a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales. His DBA included specialist training in risk management. He offers impeccable credentials for his professional independence, integrity and competence in the service of our clients. Dele will manage of team of FJP associates in the execution of your assignment. Dele is a professional independent director who has current and past services at global, continental and national levels. He is a passionate advocate of reform in national governance in Africa with contribution arising from his specialised doctoral research in the field and his advocacy of sustainable change.